

Friday, June 19, 2009, 6:00-8:00 PM
at the First Congregational Church of Berkeley 2345 Channing Way (entrance on Dana between Channing & Durant)

BOSS Indian Tamasha*

*An Indian word meaning show, spectacle, or commotion

A Tribute to the Courage of Homeless Women, Children and Men ~ Celebrating boona's
30 Years as Executive Director

TICKETS

$40 each ~ $75 for 2

All proceeds benefit BOSS year-round programs for homeless people.

SPONSORSHIP

Reach a wide audience in promotional materials while supporting solutions to homelessness.

DONATE

Contribute money, food, drinks, or supplies.

CONTACT:

Sonja Fitz, 510-649-1930
sonja@self-sufficiency.org

Homecooked Indian dinner

by boona and helpers

Live music & dance

by Duniya Dance & Drum Company

Art & jewelry sale

items by homeless children and adults

Indian fashion show

come in Indian dress to enter!

Building Opportunities for Self-Sufficiency (BOSS) is dedicated to helping homeless, poor, and disabled people achieve health and self-sufficiency, and to fighting against the root causes of poverty and homelessness. BOSS provides Housing, Health, Economic Development, and Social Justice services to nearly 2,000 families and individuals each year to help Turn Lives Around.

www.self-sufficiency.org

2065 Kittredge St. #E, Berkeley, CA 94704, Ph 510.649.1930, Fx 510.649.0627

WAYS TO HELP:

Donate ~ Cash, goods, cars, equipment or supplies, food

Volunteer ~ Once or ongoing, by yourself or with a group

Raise awareness ~ Invite a BOSS speaker to your school, business, or place of faith

♥ Share this flier with a friend! ♥