

Albany, We're on the Road to Healing

THIS EVENT IS OPEN TO PARENTS, FACULTY, HIGH SCHOOLERS, AND COMMUNITY MEMBERS

Come listen to a Community Education talk by

Barbara Coloroso

an internationally recognized educator on bullying and restorative justice

The Bully

When: Monday, May 22, 2017, 6:30 p.m.

Pre-Event Q&A begins at 6:00 p.m. --- Post-Event Q&A until 9:00 p.m.

Where: Ocean View Elementary School

Click here to reserve onsite Childcare Service

The Bullied

Barbara Coloroso is donating her time and expertise to our community at this time of collective engagement and concern. Barbara has supported school districts and families across the nation. She encourages youth to become "brave-hearted" allies for one another. Barbara has also worked on other noteworthy endeavors such as:

- Restorative Justice Practices in Rwanda, after the genocide.
- Martin Luther King III Project - Generation 2 Peacemakers alongside Desmond Tutu's daughter and other peacemakers.
- Counsels juvenile offenders to be accountable for their actions and supports their re-entry into their communities as productive citizens.

The By-Stander

The Brave-Hearted Ally

This event is co-sponsored by Albany Community Action, African-American & Black Parent Engagement Group, Familias Latinas De Albany, Jewish Parent Engagement Group and AUSD. Thanks to Albany Community Foundation for funding travel and related expenses.

Creating Caring Communities

